"It is a scheme," he said, "for taking half a billion dollars of the people's money and giving it to a super-corporation for the sinister purpose of helping a gang of financial looters to cover up their tracks.

'It is a scheme for giving these financial looters a chance to dispose of evidence, which, if brought into the light of day, would cause the doors of our federal penitentiaries to close upon them for a long term of years.

Representative McFadden was heard by more than 100 house members who sat silently and intent during his remarks, save the protest from Representative Stafford.

With announcement of President Hoover's moratorium plan it was the same republican solon from Pennsylvania who bitterly assailed the proposal.

After the interruption of Rrepesentative Stafford, McFadden continued with the statement that "the gang of financial looters have already in the last several years filched from the United States treasury enough money to pay the entire national debt, but this does not prevent them from staging another raid on it."

Inquiry Appeal Pending.

McFadden assured Stafford that he has a resolution pending seeking (avestigation of the federal reserve system. Stafford had accused the Pennsylvanian with "indicting the feweral reserve system" with his remark that his charges were based on federal reserve bank operations.

McFadden, in his attack, said, "We are now brought so low that we are actually being urged to take the last fatal plunge, to betray America and let her be sold down the river to the leeches of Wall Street.

"The looters, after wrecking the business fabric of the country, now come forward with a scheme for taktude of their men toward the proposed salary donation, with the alternative of having 10 per cent of the two forces lopped off as the only other means of balancing the city's budget for 1932. Both Beavers and Terrell were asked to report back to the committee at 10 o'clock this morning, but it was said Wednesday night that an extension of time until Friday morning probably will be asked.

Need for Balanced Budget.

Councilman James L. Wells, chairman of the finance committee, Wednesday pointed out the urgent need of balancing the budget by the time of council's meeting Monday, as, he said, unless the budget is balanced the city will be unable to borrow from the banks and city employes will face an

IN FISCAL CRISIS

There will be, certainly, a distinctly local flavor to Atlanta's part in the national party jubilation tonight. Georgia's youthful governor, just returned this week from the party councils in Washington, will welcome the democrats to the dinner. Governor Russell was one of the two governors at the meeting of the national committee and was prominent in the deliberations of the leaders which resulted in the selection of Chicago as the place for the next convention.

In Georgia, too, white candidacies will be somewhat in the background, the victory dinner is expected to take on much of a pro-Roosevelt flavor.

This is due not alone to the fact that Georgia claims the New York governor as an adapted son but to a rather firm convertion on the part of democratic leaders that he is now far out front in what there is of a race Emergency Measures If

The jury returned its verdict after deliberating three hours. Atkinson's attorheys, James A. Branch and William Schley Howard, announced that they planned a motion for a new trial and later would file a plea for Atkinson's release on bond pending final disposition of the case.

The jury took the case at 12:35 o'clock and returned its verdict a few minutes after 4:30 o'clock. An hour's recess was taken for luncheon.

In voting the manslaughter verdict the jury chose the middle ground of three courses left open to it by Judge Virlyn B. Moore, who presided over the trial of the case. In his charge Judge Moore told the jurors they could return a verdict of murder, with or without the death penalty, a verdict of manslaughter, or they could vote an acquittal on the ground that the shooting of the soldier, was, as At-kinson's defense claimed, justifiable homicide.

The case went to the jury after arguments had been made by Mr. Branch, Mr. Howard and Assistant Solicitor John H. DEMOCRATS PLAN TO REVISE SCHEME

Land Bank Bill Carries $25,000,000 Allotted to Mortgage Installment Postponements.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—(P) Reconstruction and increased taxation provided twin springs of activity today for congress.

The senate jumped ahead in consideration of the program for combatting economic paralysis, by unanimous passage of the land bank bill to help farmers get credit.

While the house was concluding debate on the reconsideration corporation, its ways and means committee heard from Scaretary Mellon and examined Undersecretary Mills on the administration proposal for lifting taxes to 1924 levels.

Just before the $2,000,000,000 corporation was taken up for amendment, Representative McFadden — Pennsylvania republican—violently assailed it as a scheme for "helping a gang of financial looters to cover their tracks."

He said increased revenue was essential. "not just to. of retrenchment." He said increased revenue was essential. The recommendation was made in his charge to the Baldwin grand jury at the opening of the Baldwin superior court here today.

Judge Park stated that President Hoover had announced himself as being opposed to a dole, but asserted that the moratorium that President Hoover had proposed was nothing short of a dole from this government to foreign governments, and also asserted that charity should begin at home. He then cited the fact that President Hoover had proposed was nothing serted that charity should begin at home. He then cited the fact that President Hoover had approved of congressional appropriations to the widows of deceased senators and congressmen and other like appropriations and that this was nothing but a dole. He said that while he was not condemning President Hoover's acts in approving such appropriations to widows of deceased representatives, that he simply pointed out to show that the president was not consistent in his remarks, and that if he was opposed to a dole for the common people and the vast army of jobless is citizens over the country, that he should at least specify that he was opposed to a dole for the jobless and lower classes and that he was in favor Mr. Daniels spoke concerning the activities of the founder of the schools, saying "We speak of Martha Berry and omit the title of 'Doctor' or 'Miss.' "Our agents report that the appeal of life insurance never has been greater. This is accounted for partly by the remarkable way in which life insurance companies are coming through the depression period. Many men whose holdings have suffered inroads from shrinkage in values, and from other losses, have turned to life insurance as the surest, as well as the most convenient, method of restoring their estates to par. Many other men are now taking life insurance as an investment of the first order, one that is guaranteed as to both principal and interest."

KILLS 12 PERSONS AS BANKHEAD WITNESS

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 13.—
(P)—Former Governor William W. Brandon today joined half a hundred witnesses in denying former Senator J. Thomas Heffin's charges of faud and corruption in the 1930 general election in Alabama.

Appearing as a rebuttal witness for Senator John H. Bankhead at hearings conducted by a commissioner of the senate elections subcommittee in connection with Heffin's contest. Brandon declared the elections one of the fairest ever held in the state.

WARSAW, Jan. 13.—(P)—Prison terms ranging from 18 months to three years were imposed today on ten of the eleven deputies and former deputies who have been on trial at Brest-Litovsk since October 26, 1931, on charges of plotting to overthrow the Pilsudski regime.

Police stopped a demonstration in the courtroom when the sentences were amounced. There was great excitement in Warsaw. All the Warsaw papers issued extras, which were torn from the hands of the news vendors.

BUDWEISER MOTOR CAR LIKE DASHING CUTTER

Atlanta motorists and others interested in automobile construction and design will have an opportunity to see the new Anheuser-Busch motor car, christened "Budweiser IV," which is now in the city on display.

Built at the orders of the Anheuser-Busch Company of St. Louis, the "Budweiser IV" has a boat body of 19 feet over all, and is mounted on a standard Pierce-Arrow chassis. Like its sister ship, the "Budweiser III" the new car carries its quota of mounted guns. anchors and other equipment to lend it a naval atmosphere. With flags fore and aft, brilliant coloring and glistening metal mountings, it resembles a dashing cutter of the high seas.

The "Budweiser IV" accommodates five passengers, and was built at a cost of $15,000. It is in Atlanta on a tour of the United States.

Woman Author's Death

Erroneously Reported NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 13.—(P)
The Associated Press received an erroneous report last night that Miss Grace King, New Orleans author, had died at her home here.

A statement by members of the family that Miss King could not live through the night was misunderstood to mean that she had died. She was still alive tonight, but her physicians said her death was expected momentarily.

Miss King made an international reputation through her writings, which included novels, magazine stories, historical reviews and poetry.

THE NEW LINCOLN V-8 . . . 5-PASSENGER SEDAN-$3200 AT DETROIT

The two new Lincolns—a V-8 cylinder—a V-12 cylinder—are now on display. The new V-8 is a true Lincoln in the full meaning of the term. Its modern beauty is typically Lincoln in line and finish. Priced from $2900 at Detroit for the Sport Roadster, the new V-8 brings Lincoln ownership within reach of more people than ever before. Like the V-12, it is characterized by workmanship that is expert and painstaking, by materials that are the finest obtainable, and by precision methods of construction that are world-famous. Its engine is the 60-degree V-type which has built the present Lincoln reputation. The V-12, an advanced expression of its makers' ideal, "a motor car as nearly perfect as it is possible to produce," is priced from $4300 at Detroit for the Sport Phaeton. This Lincoln has an immediate appeal to all who insist upon the ultimate in automobile transportation. You are cordially invited to inspect the two new Lincolns.

Many Visitors at Motor Company To See Latest Models.

The display of the new Lincoln motor cars which opened Wednesday at the Grant Motor Company, Lincoln dealers, at 230 Spring street, N. W., is attracting many visitors, the company reported. Both the new 12-cylinder and the S-cylinder Lincolns are being exhibited.

"Unusual interest has been shown both in the 8-ylinder car, which, because of substantially lower prices, extends the advantages of Lincoln ownership to a new field, and in the 12-cylinder car which appeals particularly to those who have owned cars in the higher price range," Mr. Grant said.

"The visitors who have viewed the exhibit have evinced interest especially in the new 12-cylinder Lincoln engine which is rated at 150 horse-power. The engine has unusual flexibility and rapid acceleration, with exceptional hill climbing ability at the higher speeds."

In accordance with Lincoln engineering practice, the cylinder blocks are set at 65 degrees to provide out-of-step firing and insure maximum smoothness. Other features of the design contributing to this smoothness buretor, intake-silencer and air-cleaner are mounted above and between the engine blocks. The distributor is at the rear, protected from water. The exhaust manifold is carried forward and under the engine to keep heat from the front compartment. Ignition wires to spark plugs are covered. A plated metal shield conceals the water pump drive shaft and coupling. The crankcase breather has an outlet underneath the engine pan to carry off oil fumes. Camshaft, generator and water pump are driven by a silent chain which has an automatic takeup to compensate for wear. An eccentric on the camshaft actuates the diaphragm fuel pump, Temperature control is entirely automatic, insuring maximum engine performance. Thermostats operate the radiator shutters and engine side hood ventilators.

BANDIT WINS MERCY

A bandit's plea that he robbed because he was jobless and hungry Wednesday won the sympathy of Superior Judge Virlyn B. Moore, but only to the extent that Judge Moore gave him a three-to-four-year term instead of a ten-year term, usual in such cases.

The bandit was Fred Etheridge, of Lawrenceville, who entered a plea of guilty to participating in the recent robbery of the offices of the Union Investment Company at Five Points, in which two bandits obtained more than $300 from J. C. Johnson, the manager.

Etheridge's partner in the robbery has not been arrested. Etheridge was caught after a downtown chase in which the money taken from Johnson was recovered.

"I had been out of a job for several months and had gone without food for the control of the gang.

BIG GROWTH SHOWN

"I had been out of a job for several months and had gone without food for days," Etheridge told Judge Moore in asking mercy. "I hardly knew the man who went with me and I did it only at his suggestion and after he had loaded me with whisky."

"The court can and does sympathize to be the court can always the court can always the court can be the court can always the court can be the court can always the court can always the court can be the court can always the court can be the court can always the court can always the court can always the court can be the court can always the court can always the court can always the court can be the court can always the court can always the court can be the court can always the court can

"The court can and does sympathize with any man that is hungry, but I believe there are many other ways of getting food without stealing," Judge Moore said. "However, because of the circumstances, I'm going to make your term three to four years. Otherwise I would make it ten years straight."

Hobert J. Guinn, Atlanta general Ragency, show an increase in 1931 of $1,800,000 over 1930 in paid-for business. The increase for the year in insurance in force over the preceding circumstances, I'm going to make your term three to four years. Otherwise I would make it ten years straight."

ATLANTA DIOCESE

To MARK FOUNDING

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the diocese of Atlanta will be celebrated at the annual convention to be held at St. Luke's church here on January 27 and 28, at which time delegates from parishes at Milledgeville, Fort Valley, Elberton, Washington and LaGrange will be in attendance.

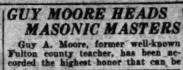

The Atlanta diocese, which comprises the territory including the parishes named, was founded in 1907 when it divided from the diocese of Georgia. The first council was presided over in Macon by the Right Rev. C. K. Nelson, who later established his home in Atlanta after the city was chosen as the see.

When the diocese holds its meeting here, the Right Rev. H. J. Mikell, bishop of the diocese, will have as his guest the Most Rev. James de Wolfe Perry, presiding bishop of the Protestant Episcopal church in America, who will take part in the anniversary program. The Right Rev. Frederick Focke Rese also will be a guest of the council.

Tharpe Heads Union. Tharpe Heads Union.

Rev. J. W. Tharpe has been elected president of the Colored Methodist Episcopal Ministers' Union, which, at its annual meeting, adopted resolutions of regret at the death of Julius Rosenwald, the philanthropist. Other officers elected were Rev. J. W. Swain, vice president; Rev. L. W. Strickland, secretary; Dr. C. K. Brown, critic; Rev. N. J. Crolley, treasurer, and Rev. J. A. Baxter, chaplain. Rev. Crolley presided at the annual meeting which was held in Central A. M. E. church.

Holmes To Speak. Rev. B. R. Holmes will deliver the principal address at the meeting at 3 o'clock this afternoon of the Parent-Teachers' Association of David T. Howard colored public school, which will be held in the main anditorium, presided over by the wife of Rev. J. M. Nabrit, pastor of Mount Olive. Baptist church. Rev. Holmes, who is president of Holmes Institute, will discuss "An Economy Budget." Special music will feature the meeting.

Boston have to wards the economic nastiness?

In Boston they tried to banish gloom and depressed spirits by giving a rather cremental to General D. Pression. At the outset they even had the mayor on their side, but opposition developed, it seems. To many people mockery of death is not a pastime to be encouraged. The burial permit was therefore not obtained. It was then decided to fling the "general" into the water in Boston harbor, where history records an earlier rather grim party.

WEATHER RECORD ESTABLISHED HERE

HOLLYWOOD IN PERSON

There is nothing the matter with the pleture industry that good pictures will not cure.

This remark was made recently by Nicholas Scheneck, considered one of the most capable executives in the motion picture industry, and puts a constructive angle on the rather exagger at ated stories that have been going the rounds due to the financial strain under which the majority of the studies have been working.

This is also the answer to the producer's worry over just what type of picture the public wants. It would seem that they want most any type, so long as it is well done. I judge, of course, by boxoffice returns and quote the five most successful pictures for the month just passed. They were, in the order of their popularity:

"Frankenstein," which comes under the 'horror' class.

"The Champ," a "tear-perker," if ever there was one.

"Private Lives," a sophisticated drawing room comedy.

Attempt to inject racial prejudice into the picture is deplorable and will lend nothing to the solution of the problem which isn't racial.

There is no need for martial law.

There is a definite need for remedying the laxness in the police department and the department of the city-county attorney, whose organizations have in the past been more political than sound.

Our entire community has been shocked by the events of the past few months, and justly so.

That definite improvement in the police and law enforcement conditions will result is, unfortunately, our only solace. The cost of this improvement, in human suffering, is very great.

Many another American city has been aroused to the laxness of its affairs by just such crimes, and has worked itself out.

Pledges Unfulfilled Creating Difficulty for Relief Workers.

Need of prompt payment of pledges to the funds for emergency relief and the Community Chest was described Tuesday afternoon by Milton W. Bell, president of the Community Chest. Payments due January 1 have been slow, only $28,460 having been made available of the $80,000 due, and the work of relief has been endangered, he said.

Increasing appeals for help have made the task of relief tremendous, said Mr. Bell, and even if all the money pledged is collected, it will hardly be adequate for the task.

World's Champion Celtics To Oppose Lookouts Here Tonight; Proposed Schmeling-Walker Title Fight at Miami Called Off

$9,000 Would Buy Two Good Players for Manager Johnny Dobbs

Apparently the only two men whom the boys at the keyholes have not thought of for manager of the Atlanta Crackers music and art lovers to the depths; are Governor Richard B. Russell and Mayor James L. Key. Why leave them out?

It is the day for favorite sons in the presidential ballyhoo peal to the sports world. and for managers for the Atlanta Crackers.

In the past months the Crackers have been sold to Brooklyn, to the Yankees, to Colonel T. L. Huston, to Strang Nicklin, to a mysterious "syndicate" and to Joe Engel, who was to turn back the Lookouts to Washington and hang his hat here.

The Crackers have had as managers Bert Niehoff, who would be brought here in exchange for Dobbs; Wilbert Robinson, Ty Cobb, Red Barron, Jack Sheehan, Stuffy Stewart and

All of which is set down to indicate just how ridiculous the local baseball situation has become and to indicate also what a lot of work, and that quickly, is needed to give the club some dignity and public standing.

All the "managers" mentioned are excellent gentlemen. Red Barron, a home boy, would likely do as well as any or better. There is no finer boy than Red Barron.

But what is the matter with Johnny Dobbs? Why all the desire to get rid of him? Why the sudden urge to pay out $9,000 in order to let him go?

Why not let a man, who is thoroughly capable and whose work has been misrepresented by disgruntled ball players who should not have been given a listening ear, go on with some real helping hands behind him?

That $9,000 would buy two good ball playersthree if the shopping was done carefully.

Let's let the platform be "Franklin D. Roosevelt for president and Johnny Dobbs for Cracker manager."

"I am glad to hear so many good things about the coaches and the team," he said. "I wasn't sure about it at all.

"You see, when we came back from that licking at Los Angeles I felt pretty low. I was in the office and wanted to make a phone call but the switchboard girl was off for the holidays. I went in and asked Stegeman for a nickel and told him I had to call a friend.

"Steg said, 'Here's a dime, call all your friends,' And that's the way I felt.

WHAT! NO FIGHT?

The public seems to be saying, "What of it?" in regard to the proposed Schmeling-Walker fight. It is off in Miami because there are not enough people down there basking in the sands and ready to look at a fight.

The heat must be turned on somewhere else so that the managers may see if there are any customers willing to get warm.

The "natural" is Schmeling and Sharkey. That fight would draw in New York. Meanwhile the heavyweights are paying the price of folly. They are not as interesting as they once were.

And Georgia Tech's game at Auburn, wherein the Jackets lost by three points, indicates that the Jackets may surprise before the season is done. Vanderbilt, Tennessee, Maryland and Auburn are other teams which look good at this early date.

Reports From Florida That $100,000 Would Be Best "Gate."

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—(P)—Plans for a heavyweight championship fight between Max Schmeling and Mickey Walker at Miami, Fla., in February were definitely cancelled late today. The cancellation of the fight followed some nine days of delay in signing the necessary papers after terms had virtually been agreed upon.

At first various complications arose in the organization of the Madison Square Garden Corporation of Florida, which was to handle the promotion directly in order not to involve the New York Garden in difficulties with the New York state athletic commission. Then as late as this afteraon it was announced something with the New York state athletic com-mission. Then as late as this after-noon it was announced something wrong had been found with one clause in the contract to prevent the signing. The Garden was understood to have been opposed to the Miami bout throughout the proceedings, but was willing to go through with it in order to get the champion's services for a title defense next summer.

LEXINGTON, Va., Jan. 13.—A great passing attack coupled with a tight defensive enabled the University of Virginia quintet to defeat V, M. I. here tonight. 27 to 23.

Tied at half time, 13-all, the Cavaliers led by Captain Mayo and Delafield, spurted into the lead. Three times the Cadets tied the score but the Cavaliers came back to take the lead and hold it by freezing the ball in the last five minutes. IN FOR BAD YEAR.

In 1929 Mehre seemed to be in for the worst year he had ever had. It was really his first effort as head coach. And out of it he and his raw sophomores carved the greatest three years any Georgia team ever had.

It seemed hardly possible yes-terday that "Catfish" Smith was-ever an unknown. It was just last fall that one of the great restaurants in New York adver-tised a fish dinner with catfish "a la Catfish Smith" of Geor-The stadium is paid for now. That making it come true. And the team and the coaches came through with a ac colorful, fighting outfit that drew the greatest crowds that ever saw a southern football team play.

TEAM PRAISED.

Edgar Dunlap, of Gainesville, well known attorney and Legionnaire of that city, delivered the principal address, praising the team for its season and Dean Sanford for his work as faculty chairman.

D. W. Bridges, of the Rotary Club, presided. The club made the banquet one of the finest ever given for the team.

Short talks over stadium WTFI were made by the graduating players, Bennett, Moran, Patterson, Leathers, Roberts, Downes, Kelly, Dickens, Smith, Chandler, Maddox and Rose. Dean S. V. Downes, Sullivan and Moran, quarterbacks; Chandler, Key, Mott and Dickens, halfbacks; Whire and Roberts, fullbacks, Sam Broadnax, as student manager, also received a letter.

FISTIC HEAD.

BOSTON, Jan. 13.—(UP)—Governor Joseph B. Ely today nominal Eddie Casey, Harrard football coas as at ate boxing commissioner to place Eugene L. Buckley, whose tenas expired. The executive council expected to confirm the nomination next week. The appointment is three years at an annual salary $2.000.

The old game seems to be drifting back to the home of its people. Meaning golf. There have been two big tournaments played so far in 1932 and the two were captured by Scottish entries. MacDonald Smith, once from St. Andrews, paced the field in the Angeles test.

Both Armour and Smith traveled at dazzling speed, well below even 4's for the long journey. Each set a competitive course record at 68 and each had something to spare at the finish.

Mac Smith is the leading exponent of swinging grace and everlasting smoothness, with almost no semblance of a hit. Armour, a fine wooden club player, is one of the greatest iron players of all time, a legding example of what hands and wrists can do in handling a golf club. Both are insistent upon left-arm control, both in starting the club back and in starting the down swing.

Wilson's strength, in haggling is unfortunately very, very meager. While the world's champions are particularly long on pitching strength, developments in 1931 fixed it so that even under a silky salary agreement Hack might have a time breaking into the regular line-up. Two of the Card gardeners are way up front in the public eye, and much beloved of the management. Chick Hafey became the first bespectacled major leaguer to win the batting championship of the loop, and Pepper Martin's sensational play forces the front office to keep him there to please the customers, if for no other reason. And there are plenty of other reasons.

And there are plenty of other reasons.

That leaves only right field, which is not a happy place for Hack. The sun-field brings up memories of those sun-swallowed fly balls in the 1930 world series, with which Wilson's troubles began. And besides, George Watkins played right field capably last year for Street, fielding well and swinging in with the speed program.

And there's Orsatti and some some ambitious right-fielders to be tested out this spring.

So, all in all, even though Hack's pride is in for a bad jolt, the Cards have the whip-hand because they don't actually need his services, and right now they are skeptical of his value.

Julie is fatally injured when, in an effort to avoid further jealousy, she falls down an elevator shaft. The rest of the story concerns the tangled love affair, centering about Mitzi, Eleanor and Michael and after considerable developing of the intricate plot, everything ends happily.

Miss Bartholomew In All-Bach Program

A magnificent recital was the all-Bach program given by Miss Eda Bar-tholomew Tuesday evening at St. Mark Methodist church as a presen-tation of the Georgia Chapter of the American Guild of Organists, of which Mrs. Bonita Crowe is dean.

which Mrs. Bonita Crowe is dean.

Every detail of the program of preludés, chorales, violin concerto, and organ compositions bore the dignity of the classic style, and the entire performance reflected serious study and a thorough understanding.

Artists assisting Miss Bartholomew were Mrs. D. C. Adams and Miss Margaret Battle, soprano; Mesdames L. D. King and John Sizoo, contraltos; W. L. Brown and A. W. Browning, tenors; C. D. Kimbro and E. A. Werner, basses, and Mrs. Alex C. King Jr. and Miss Gene Farmer, violinists.

Notable among the chorales sung by the double quartet was "In Deepset Grief" from St. Mathew Passion, in which levely voices blended in an interpretation of soulful beauty. The second movement of the D Minor Concerto for two violins with organ was a performance of such beautiful art that the audience was deeply impressed.

that the audience was deeply impressed.

Miss Bartholomew played "Passacaglia Et Thems Fugatum in C Minor," a composition demanding extensive scope of pedal and manual technique as well as musicianship, with utmost ease and authority, verifying the merited position she holds among organists of the south. It is thought that this was the first performance of this stupendous work in Atlanta.

Atlanta.

One went away from this unusual recital composed entirely of the works of Bach with a feeling that one had worshipped at a shrine—the shrine of the master of the classics.

FRIENDLY COUNSEL

Problems of general interest submitted by readers will be discussed this column. Correspondence invited. Your name held in confi-ce. Write Miss Chatfield, care The Atlanta Constitution.

DEAR MISS CHATFIELD:

Here is a mean mother-in-law problem. I am married to a cripple who gets a government pension. We love each other and when his mother is away everything is peaceful and calm. We have pleasant friends that come and go. We call on them and have a delightful social life. But the minute my mother-in-law comes to our home frouble begins. She comes first with my husband. She is so anxious to get into private conversation with him that she goes into the bathroom while he is taking his bath and locks the door behind her. She does everything she can to aggravate me, going so far as to open my letters that I have sealed for mailing. She catechises me about everything and carries tales to my husband about me. He believes all she tells him, though she is not strictly truthful where. I am concerned. I am devoted to my husband but I am not happy and never can be so long as I have to/contend with his mother. Tell me what you think. J. M.

ANSWER:

I think the mother-in-law is as shameless as any I have ever heard about. I think it would take an angel to endure what she imposes on you. I don't know any woman that wouldn't feel rightened in the contrageous conduct. I think you are in an awful jam. But how to get out of it I can't tell you. Suppose for argument's sake that you should lay down the law and tell her that either you or she might be frightened by the threat and move. But suppose further, that she should go to the son and poison his mind against you to such an extent that he would tell you to get out. Where would you be? You couldn't desert a crippled husband whom you love and one that loves you. You don't want to go. You shouldn't go. The very fact that he is incapacitated ties your hands and your tongue. Maybe you can compromise and take exception to the liberties she takes with you, rather than to her presence in your home.

You can certainly protest vigorously against her interception of your private letters and you can refuse to answer any questions she asks you. She has no right to catechise you and you are extremely foolish to allow her that privilege. Cripple or no cripple, you can certainly go to your husband and tell him that the only way he can expect to keep the peace in the home is to refuse to hear tales carried to him by fis mother about you. He, too, is culpable in permitting anyone, even his own mother, to tell derogatory stories about his wife.

If none of these things helps the situation you might form the habit of leaving home for part of the time when she is there, though you won't want to do that, being naturally jealous of her influence over your husband. There are some women that have the hardihood to cut a clean swath across such a situation. But I know from your letter you are not one of them. This is not to your discredit, necessarily, but it is to your disadvantage. Gentleness will probably win out in the long run, but it's a terrible temptation to advise you to forget both and read the riot act to a shameless mother-in-law that invades your home and destroys its peace and contentment.

Mrs. W. Reattie, massican. Mrs. on the polar port of the senior post of the sen To quickly end stubborn coughs due to colds, it is important to soothe the inflamed membranes, get rid of the germs and also to aid the system inwardly to help throw off the trouble. For these purposes, here is a homemade medicine, far better than anything you could buy at 3 times the cost. From any druggist, get 2½ ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a pint bottle, and add plain granulated sugar syrup or strained honey to fill up the pint. This takes but a moment, saves money, and makes a remedy so effective that you will never do without, once you have used it. Keeps perfectly, and children like it. This simple remedy does three necessary things. First, it loosens the germladen phlegm. Second, it soothes away the inflammation. Third, it is absorbed into the blood, where it acts directly on the bronchial tubes. This explains why it brings such quick relief, even in the obstinate coughs which follow cold epidemics.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway Pine, containing the active agent of creosote, in a refined, palatable form, and known as one of the greatest medicinal agents for severe coughs and bronchial irritations.

Do not accept a substitute for Pinex, It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.

Assembly Failed To Provide for Two Boards, Purchasing Agent.

Failure of the general assembly, in creating the boards of regents and control and the state purchasing agent, to make appropriations to pay for the operation of these departments, which was revealed Wednesday, left officialdom with an impression that the oversight can be corrected only by the general assembly. The major items the lawmakers overlooked concern salaries of the secretary of each of the boards, the purchasing agent, and for such clerical help and office supplies as may be necessary. Lawyer members of the general assembly, here in connection with other matters, were of the opinion that these salaries cannot he paid out of the governor's $150,000 emergency fund.

In the case of the supervisor of purchases, which absorbed the state printing department, there is available $6,000, which was appropriated to the office of superintendent of printing. JOPLIN, Mo., Jan. 13.—(P)—The bodies of Harry and Jennings Young, the slayers of six Springfield, Mo., officers who died by their own hands at Houston, Texas, to escape capture, were buried in adjoining graves in Egiptive cemetery here today.

TOBACCO RATES UPHELD BY I. C. C.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13 .- (AP)-The interstate commerce commission today upheld freight rates on tobacco products in less than carloads from Winston-Salem, Reidsville and Durham, N. C., and Richmond, Va., to southern destinations. The Tobacco Merchants Association, composed of the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, the American Tobacco Company, Liggett & Myers, Larus & Brother and other tobacco manufacturing companies, complained that rates on less than carload shipments of to-bacco products were too high. The cars are loaded by the com-ne cars are loaded by the companies at the factories in such a way that freight may be taken out in the order in which cars reach the various stations. Usually the railroad company loads less than carload freight. The tobacco men claimed they should be given the henefit of this should be given the benefit of this work in their rates.

How many young women are fast approaching a nervous break-down because they let suffering due to female weakness rob them of their strength and health.

In offices or in their homes, they drive themselves, working "on their nerve." Hoping against hope cause of the headaches and backthat tomorrow they will feel better ... but instead they become more and more prostrated.

It is a double tragedy because it is so unnecessary.

Nature did not mean women to suffer so cruelly. If they would only try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound! It has befriended women against their "peculiar" troubles for over 50 years.

It brings soothing, comforting

This simple, safe remedy has justly earned its place in the Family Medicine Cabinet.

Won't you listen to the testimony of thousands of women who use it? Give it at least one chance to help you. Get a bottle from your druggist today. Or, try it in the new,

I had expected to win this match by 20,000 points and at least one-half of the amount that I fell short of that figure was due to the fact that our opponents used approach bids rather than no-trump bids in reaching their final contracts, thus disclosing to each other the distribution as well as the high cards contained in their hands and assuring that the final contract would be based on scientifically drawn inferences rather than blind guesses.

Before this match began many of my friends told me that it was idiotic to leave, such important issues to the luck of the cards. They pointed out to me the fact that no one can protect himself against, a run of yarboroughs and near yarboroughs. I knew this, but I also knew that blind chance is impartial. I felt, and the facts have demonstrated that I was right, that in 150 rubbers, nearly 900

Mystery Surrounds Dou-Virginia Social Colony.

MIDDLEBURG, Va., Jan. 13.—(P)
Among the rolling hills of Virginia's famous fox-hunting country, police tonight sought a negro ex-convict in connection with the killing of Mrs.
Agnes Boeing Ilsley, 40, wealthy sportswoman, and her maid.

Their bodies, with skulls crushed, were found early today by Paul Boeing, Mrs. Ilsley's brother, in a cottage on the 200-acre estate where she kept her string of fine hunters.

Boeing had spent the night a few yards away in the colonial manor house which Mrs. Ilsley had leased until Sunday to Katrina McCormick, daughter of Ruth Hanna McCormick, former Illinois congresswoman.

When Boeing entered the cottage for breakfast, he found the body of his sister, widow of Spencer Ilsley, Milwaukée banker, on the floor of her bedroom. She apparently had been beaten down in the midst of a desperate attaggle

In a near-by room, the body of the maid, Mina Buckner, 60, lay across Both women were clothed ready for bed. Mrs. Ilsley's rings were on her finger and a purse near by, containing a folder of bills, was undisturbed. The only thing missing was a small automobile, taken from the garage. Two larger cars were left behind. Entrance to the home had been obtained by breaking the glass in a door.

Joined by Brigadier General William Mitchell, former assistant chief of the army air forces, and a leader in the Middleburg-Watrenton social colony, police began a search for George Crawford, the negro ex-convict, a former employe on the estate.

He was sought after it was disclosed that Mrs. Ilsley had believed he broke into her house on Christmas Eve. She then expressed fear of him and asked associates for advice. Bertie Neal, a pegress, was held for Bertie Neal, a negress, was held for questioning after reports that she had been with Crawford last night. She denied this, however, but others told Sheriff E. S. Adrian, of Loudon county, that Crawford was in Middleburg last night after a long absence.

No weapon which might have been used to kill the women was found, but Dr. H. A. WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—(4P)—
Congressmen who want the navy built to treaty limits today found themselves in a no-compromise war of their own making.

It arose in the announcement of an attempt to substitute a one-year construction program for the 10-year bill pending before the house naval committee.

Morton Downey, tenor, will be heard in the popular song, "I Found You," after which the orchestra, under the direction of Jacques Renard, will play Noel Coward's hit song, "Some Day I'll Find You," as the first two selections on the Camel quarter hour broadcast over the WABC-Columbia network, from 6:45 to 7 tonight. Downey will also sing "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," and a new song to be introduced on the air for the first time.

Mrs. Hugh Lokey Jr., a recent bride, will be honor guest at the bridge-tea to be given Saturday by Miss Esther Garrett at her home on Penn avenue. Invited for this affair are eight close friends of the honor guest.

The annual daddies' night meeting of Kirkwood P.T. A., scheduled to be held Tuesday evening, January 19, has been postponed to Friday night, January 22, at 7.30 o'clock, according to announcement of Mrs. H. W. Barron, president.

direction and so Mr. Lenz, departing from the precepts of whist days, elected to make a typical Culbertson lead, the nine of clubs.

Commander Liggett won the first trick with the queen, laid down the ace and returned the third round of his suit, permitting Mr. Lenz to trump and thus cash three tricks before I even obtained the lead.

Had a card of any other suit been led, instead of making 10 tricks, I could not have made less than 12 and might possibly have made 13.

The factor of luck in life is incalsulable. The factor of luck on any individual hand may be great indeed. In life there is no assurance that luck will ever distribute its favors evenly, but in dealing with cards and in all other matters of blind chance, the inexorable laws work to their inevitable end.

Surprise Party.

A surprise birthday party was given Monday evening at the Henry Grady hotel by Samuel A. Kemp in honor of Miss Elizabeth Truesdale. A bridge game was played, the top scores: were won by Mrs. J. T. Thomason and Jimmje Weaver. Miss Elizabeth Truesdale was given a beautiful guest prize. Mr. Kemp was assisted in entertaining by Miss Maudie Truesdale.

The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Curry, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Thomason, Misses Jessie Me-Leod, Ribbie Torrance, Eppie Jones, Evely Kitchens, Spec Godwin, Maudie Truesdale and S. A. Britten said the one-year program would have been brought to a vote in the house last session if there had seemed to be any likelihood of senate approval.

"Also, it had the approval of the president since it was not contrary to his financial policy," Britten said. He insisted there was little likelihood that either Mr. Hoover or leaders of the house would accept the | Vinson bill.

But Rear Admiral Mark L. Bristol, chairman of the navy general board, testified before the committee that the 10-year plan should be accepted. He held the tonnage necessary to bring the fleet up to treaty limits should be acquired before there is an emergency.

The fleet at present, he added, is "unbalanced" and in no condition to meet emergenies.

Britten said that if he failed to get approval of a substitute for the Vinson bill in committee he would carry his fight to the floor.

BY JOHN L. COOLEY.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—(P)—Securities markets steamed steadily upward today.

Stocks and bonds made new highs for the young year. United States government obligations received joyfully the reports that the federal reserve system was planning to expand credit. Railroad bonds, with an eye credit. Railroad bonds, with an eye on tomorrow's wage meeting, were strong. In stocks, the improvement progressed healthily from the opening. Many leaders were up 2 to uearly 6 points net and the turnover increased to 2,064,840 shares.

Industrial issues attracted the buying which had been absent yesterday. Led by United States Steel's 3-point advance, they advanced from a major fraction to 5, with strength particularly noticeable in the tobaccos which were inspired by the Reynolds report. The chief repercussion from the Sinclair-Prairie merger, was a 19port. The chief repercussion from the Sinclair-Prairie merger, was a 19-point jump in Sinclair preferred; etherwise the petroleums were quiet. Rails improved liberally, while utilities tagged after American Telephone's rise of about 6 points. 1 Ran & Ar (34) ... 214 phone's rise of about 6 points.

The rally in government bonds was forceful enough to command wide-spread comment. Subject to only feeble rallies, these securities had been going down for several weeks and their action was one of the market's persistent discouragements. However, a credit extension policy on the part of the central banking authorities would imply increased purchases of "governments" by the federal reserve: furthermore a balanced budget would mean that federal financing could return to normal.

Wheat' and corn gained small fractions. Cotton turned strong, rising tions. Cotton turned strong. rising 65 to 80 cents net. Foreign exchanges were firm.

Foreign Markets

LONDON—Investors today supported glit-siged securities, home rails and industrials, laps eae bonds and German issues showed isse of from 2 to 4 points. Indian issues and American stocks were better. PARIS—In the face of the ministerial trisis and the pending formation of a new cabinet the bourse opened hesitant and with slight losses, but later buying caused some recovery. Rentes opened irregular but closed firm on renewed buying.

YENNER, BEANE & UNGERLEIDER.
NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—The behavior of stocks today furnished strong indications of aggressive constructive sponsorship by dogged persistency with which pivotal issues pushed forward and definitely penetrated previous supply levels.

Outstanding among developments affecting the market's background and affording at clue to convincing character of its action, was news that the federal reserve bank had cut its buying rate on bankers' bills below open market levels. This step in conjunction with other confirmary evidence is interpreted to mean active measure have been taken to back up the moderate inflance in the reconstruction finance bill is expected to set in motion. We would accept the market's demonstration and advocate purchases for both trading and long term commitments.

TARZAN THE TERRIBLE No. 100

The ape-man paced the confines of his prison cell. Bitterly he reproached himself for the stupidity that had led him into this trap. Yet what more natural than to have attempted the rescue of his mate? Presently he heard the clanging of a gong from the corridor without and, very faintly, the rush of feet and shouting. He guessed that his warriors had been discovered and that a fight was in progress. He fretted and chafed at the chance that had denied him participation in it.

Again and again he tried the doors of his prison and the trap in the center of the floor, but none would give to his utmost endeavors. He strained his eyes toward the aperture above but he could see nothing. The hours dragged on. Finally, sounds came to him as of shouting men at a great distance. The battle was in progress. He wondered if Ja-don would be victorious, and, should he be, would his friends ever discover him in this hidden chamber in the bowels of the hill? He doubted it.

And now as he looked again toward the aperture in the roof, there appeared to be something depending from its center. He came closer, strained his eyes to see. Yes, there was something there.
It appeared to be a rope. He wondered if it had been there all the time? Or was it some new ruse of his captors? He had heard no sound from above, and concluded that it must have been there all the time but had escaped his notice. He raised his hand toward it. The end of it was just within his reach.

He bore his weight upon it to see if it would hold him. Then released it and backed away. Again and again he touched and tested the braided rope, and always he listened for any warning sound from above. He was very careful not to step upon the trap at any time, and finally he bore all his weight upon the rope and took his feet from the floor. He spread them wide apart so that if he fell, he would fall astride the trap. There was no sound from above nor any from the trap below. Slowly and cautiously he drew himself upward.

The report of the council's special committee does not refer by name to recent critics of ministers who opposed operation of moving picture theaters on Sunday in behalf of charity, but sounds a note of warning against such practices.

Warns Against Differences.

The report follows:

"No intelligent person denies for a moment that the problems now facing the American people are so numerous, so perplexing and so tremendous that we must keep at our main task or else we perish, It will be an immeasurable tragedy if the forces for righteous relief should become pitted against each other in jealousy and abusive attack. Our prayer is that the God of hosts will keep usunited in effort, in purpose, in method and in spirit as we try to alleviate human suffering in these dreadful days.

"We believe that all men who think and know, will not doubt for a moment that our church people are the first in desire and willingness to help the poor of our city.

First in Service.

"If all of the facts were known it would be clearly seen that our churches stand first among all institutions in service to mankind. The churches have welfare funds, which in the aggregate amount to many they." churches have welfare funds, which in the aggregate amount to many thousands of dollars, which funds are dispensed to their respective poor. Not only so, but the churches are supporting their own orphanages, good-will centers and hospitals.

"The spirit of love and helpfulness for the unfortunate was bred, born, nourished and disciplined in our Christian churches. No greater calamity could befall our civilization than for our citizenry to forget that the spirit of Christ has been transported from Calvary to the twentieth century by the Christian churches.

Discreditors Hit.

"These facts should be kept in mind by those who try to make it appear that business concerns, theaters and athletic teams are doing the job while the Christians are standing on the street corners with disfigured faces, making long prayers, forgetting the physical suffering all about them. It is a travesty of the churches and a step toward national spicide to attempt to make the people at large discount and discredit our churches.

"With these facts in view, no one should question the sincerity of the ministers and other church people when they protest against the commercialization of Sunday. With the Lord's Day commercialized, civilization of the same is dangerous, unsound and dishonest.

"The spirit of love and helpfulness for the uncit for the uncit make good."

Describing the proposed benefits as "doles," McFadden said some businesses want them "because they have put their signature on illegal, worthless and uncollectible paper and they are unwilling to take part in the result the United States government takes over that paper and relieves them of their responsibilities concerning it."

"Their scheme," he added, "is to make the people of the United States to furnish a purchase price for their frozen assets; to have the government put its signature on those assets; to te them up in a different package, and then to sell them again to the general public.

Modern methods of B. Y. P. U. organization were stressed in the group conferences held throughout the day.

The keynote of the day was "Transformed Churches," in conjunction with the general keynote of the conference, "Be Ye Transformed."

Dr. Ellis A. Fuller, pastor of the First Baptist church of Atlanta, in one of the opening sermons of the day, asserted that his church was "signally honored to have this convention of young people hold their day sessions in it. Alston recovered sufficiently to understand what had happened, he saw Mr. Daniels bleeding from a wound on the head. A passerby assisted Mr. Daniels and Mr. Alston into another car and hurried to St. Joseph's infirmary. They arrived at the hospital within 40 minutes after the accident.

Dr. LeRoy Childs arrived at the hospital a few minutes later and Mr. Daniels was taken into the operating room. Dr. Childs expressed himself, after a brief examination before the former secretary of the navy was given a thorough inspection, that the injuries were not serious.

The publisher was in good spirit, and stood the long wait in the operating and X-ray rooms, while doctors hurried about, without apparest emotion, although complaining of pains in his left wrist.

Dr. Childs said it would be necessary for Mr. Daniels to remain at the hospital here for several days.
